Hello there,

Thank you for contacting us. We are excited to hear that you are designing a site to help others in need! You can certainly share our website link for your site.

Kindly note that members will need to first activate their membership in order to contact a therapist from our platform.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Warm regards,
Lisa
BetterHelp Team

IMPORTANT: Please remember that online therapy is not appropriate for crisis situations. If you need immediate attention (and are in the US) please call now 1-800-273-TALK (24 hours hotline). If you or anyone else might be in danger please call 911, or the emergency contact in your country or go to the nearest emergency room. Also, please note that this email was not written by a therapist and doesn't constitute as therapy.

I would like to link to your site and send people in need to you.
Maybe even talk with some of your counselor's.
I am designing a site to help people in need.
I am not in this for profit, I just want to help others.
